LBJ and state socialism

When Presidential Aspirant Barry Goldwater recently referred to the Johnson administration as fascist in nature with particular reference to its alleged inquisition methods of keeping party members in line, we at first thought the charge in poor taste at best. We still think the term used should have been the generic one, "state socialism"—dictatorial socialism—rather than fascism with its geographical connotation, but have finally realized its merit.

The Johnson administration is state socialist in nature. Astute maneuverer President Johnson undoubtedly is; quasi-Southern he was born; a civil wrongs bill he campaigned against four years ago, but maneuvered out of the Congress a more dictatorial bill that his predecessor, President John Kennedy advocated, and even Attorney General Robert Kennedy protested. It gave him, as president, more dictatorial power.

Henry Ford et al publicly support the incumbent; so did the Krupp interest and their cohorts in Germany support Hitler. The King Makers are pro-Johnson as they were state socialists in Europe. The big city papers with their huge investments are almost unanimous for Johnson, particularly chains like Hearst and New Orleans' Newhouse, but the little boys are pro Senator Goldwater with the middle size and independent papers about evenly split.

All this makes sense. The big are only interested in money; state socialism almost guarantees the money as long as they play ball; and the little boys are no threat to them under a dictator.

Now let's add up a few other aspects of President Johnson's administration: illegal political orders to federal employees; Atlantic City; thumb screws used on political figures; almost indifference to riots in major, and politically important, large Eastern cities (any other course would have cost him votes); and last week's palpable lie about moving much of the Huntsville NASA operation to New Orleans, which can't be resolved until months after the election, in an effort to bail out number three henchman, Representative Hale Boggs.

Coming closer home, Governor Paul Johnson, who is on record that he can't vote for Lyndon Johnson, greets Lady Bird at Edgewater, a social nicety completely out of place during a political campaign; Congressman John Bell Williams is threatened with loss of seniority because he publicly supports Senator Goldwater, although all precedent is to the contrary; U.S. Senator John Stennis and Congressman William Colmer, who until a few weeks ago flooded this office with anti-Johnson handouts, now report "no comment"; and local level politicians, who as late as a month ago were openly for Senator Goldwater, are now undecided or campaigning for Johnson even though Hancock County will vote handily for Goldwater.

You add it up. State socialism is President Johnson's credo. We prefer some freedom, and, even though we disagree with much Senator Goldwater advocates, we are going to vote for him. Hope you put freedom ahead of power and the dollar too!

Hancock Countians are expected to go to the polls next Tuesday in larger than usual numbers to vote in the presidential election with both Democratic and Republican campaign organizations picking up activities in the closing days of the contest.

Besides deciding between the Democratic nominee, President Lyndon B. Johnson, and the GOP standard bearer, Barry Goldwater, the county also will vote for a U. S. Senator, a 5th District Congressman, and two Supreme Court judges from the 2nd (Southern) District of Mississippi.

Interest will be intensified in the north county area where Beats 3 and 4 elect their members of the county board of education for the next five years. Running in Beat 3 are Louis J. Breaux, Oliver J. Cuevas, Ursan A. Ladner, Luis Nacaise, the incumbent, and Tommy Shaw. Running against incumbent S.P. Powell in Beat 4 are Clifton J. Ladner and Eric Larsen.

All voters who are otherwise qualified will not need to have their poll taxes paid to vote in the presidential election. Dan M. Russell, Jr., chairman of the county election commission noted.

Two separate ballots have been prepared. One contains the names of the presidential electors and the candidates for U.S. Senate and Congress, and those voters who are qualified as follows: (1) a resident of Mississippi for two years (2) a resident of the precinct for one year, and (3) registered four months prior to the general election on Nov. 3 (deadline being July 3, 1964) will have the right to vote the federal ballot.

In Beats 3 and 4 where there are candidates for the county school board, there is another ballot and in order to vote it is necessary to be a qualified elector, together with the payment of the last two years of poll taxes.

It is not necessary to take your poll tax receipts to the polls in this election.

There will be four fewer precincts in the county this time as a result of consolidations resulting from land acquisition for Mississippi Test Operations. The total is now 21. Beat 2 will vote at Plattop as one box while those formerly voting at Logtown, Gainesville and Napoleon have been lumped into the box at Pearlington. Hancock County also may have something to do with national trends forecasting in Tuesday.

'Run around' yet on planning aid

"It behooves me to advise you gentlemen that you are getting what I would call a run-around." So stated the board of supervisors' attorney, Lucien M. Gex, after reading a letter from the Mississippi Agricultural and Industrial Board at a supervisors' meeting Monday.

The letter—three lengthy wordy paragraphs explaining that lack of personnel in the Jackson office had prevented forwarding Hancock County's application for financial aid state and federal sources. Atlanta office was read by board president R.G. Hubbard, Jr.

Beat 1 supervisor Harlan G. Dean remarked that he had said all along that aid from outside the county was being stalled. Hubbard explained that no millage would be levied for planning until assurance was received that state and federal funds are forth coming. A motion to appoint Joseph V. Colson, Roy Baxter and Leo Seal, Jr., to the Regional Planning Commission was made by

Beat 2 supervisor Dolph Kellar and seconded by Dean with the statement that they were not committing the board to levy millage and no local revenue would be pledged to planning at this time.

Another letter affirmed state allowance of two mills for the Port and Harbor Commission.

In other business payment of $392.50 was passed for Public Employees Retirement Fund for Roland LaFontaine; $494.28 for an architect's estimate for repairs to the courthouse from Landry and Mathes; and motions to send Miss Arthenese Noto and V.P. Hood, both of Waveland, to Sanitarium, were unanimously approved. Dean moved, seconded by Kellar that M. Sutherland of Pass Christian be granted permission to erect a hangar adjacent to the existing one at Hancock County airport. Hubbard announced the amount of $23,190.19 has been allocated to Hancock County from federal secondary road funds to match state and local funds.

The board also agreed to allow Hubbard five additional men to speed up work on damage to pavement on the seawall resulting from Hurricane Hilda.

Final motion to appoint Jimmy Favre courthouse janitor to replace the late Roland LaFontaine, effective Nov. 1 was made by Dean, seconded by Kellar.

ZONING HEARINGS

First petitions for exemptions from requirements of Bay St. Louis' new zoning ordinance are scheduled for public hearing before the board of zoning adjustment at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

NO symphony comes Monday

The New Orleans Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra, with Werner Torkanowsky conducting, will make its first appearance in Bay St. Louis Monday with two concerts scheduled in Bay High School gymnasium.

Tickets for the afternoon performance starting at 1:15 p.m. designed especially for students may be obtained from home room teachers. Seats for the evening concert for adults at 8:15 p.m. are available at the Montuzin Drug Store, Lorraine Flower Shop and from the ticket committee headed by Mrs. J.W. Clark.

Program for the matinee performance includes excerpts from Handel's Water Music; the First Movement of Beethoven's Fifth Symphony; The Worried Drummer by Schreiner which will provide a demonstration of instruments; Appalachian Spring by Copland, with Capriccio Espagnole by Rimsky-Korsakov. The Overture from Rossini's Semiramide will open the evening concert which includes Mendelssohn's Fourth (Italian) Symphony, Appalachian Spring and Les Preludes by Liszt.

Eve of All Saints Day

It's goblin time

It's Halloween again this Saturday night and the younger set throughout the county has an assortment of events to help them celebrate the occasion which precedes the somber observance of All Saints Day on Sunday.

North Bay Elementary School will be the scene of a Carnival starting at 6 p.m. Saturday under auspices of the Parent-Teacher Assn. for the Bay and Waveland schools. Mrs.

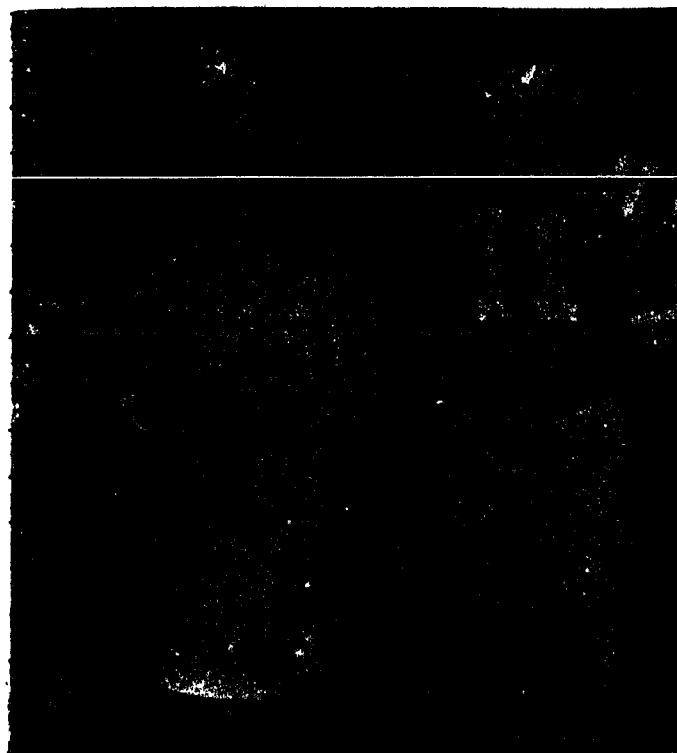

Harold Kramky, general chairman, said new features will include a bean bag game, ping pong, hayride, gold fish booth and darts along with the popular horror room and fortune telling. Refreshments will be available.

Drop-out problem viewed at Logtown

Responsibility of parents, teachers and the entire community in the school drop-out problem was cited by Rev. T. Heirs, pastor of First Southern Baptist Church of Pearlington and County School Superintendent Robert F. Ladner in talks before the Logtown Parent-Teacher Assn. Oct. 20. The P-TA will continue consideration of the matter at its next meeting.

Mr. Heirs presented graphs demonstrating that Logtown who have either failed or dropped out of Bay High School to emphasize the problem.

Ladner cited as reasons consistent failure in regular school work, low reading ability, wrong grade level placement (pupils too old for their grade), failure to consistently achieve in school work, irregular attendance and frequent tardiness, frequent changes of schools, refusal to participate in extra-curricular activities, performance consistently below potential of particular child and low educational level of parents.

Mrs. William White, president, conducted the business session. Mrs. J.E. Giveans, safety and maintenance chairman, reported safety, emergency and first aid equipment for the school buses has been checked and ordered.

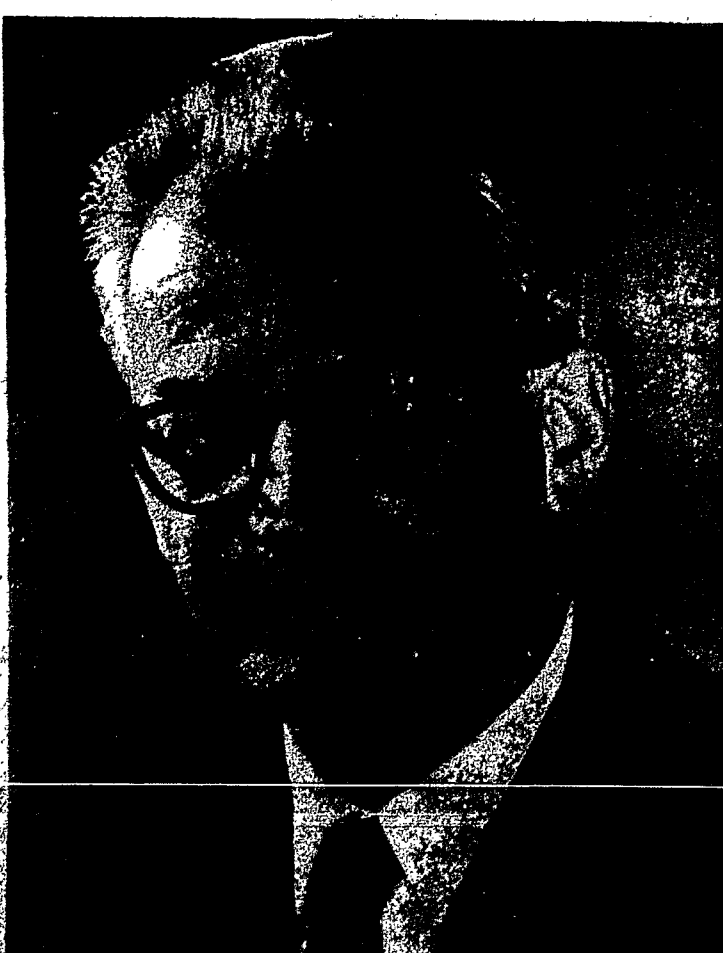

Mrs. Arlie Strain reported on music activity and Rev. Percy Hatch, principal, urged persons to contribute to the school library during book week, Nov. 2-7. He noted Mrs. Toomer has donated a set of encyclopedias. The P-TA was asked to help with basketball equipment. Hatch noted the football program has been beneficial to all students and commended those who have helped with it.

Gex children mark birthdays

Mary Beth and Jeff Gex, children of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Gex, celebrated their fourth and third birthdays respectively with a party Monday morning at their home on Bay View Court.

Sharing the occasion with them were Leslie and Laurie

In your heart you know he's right about CUBA

Barry Goldwater says: "The Bay of Pigs has left us not a moment to breathe, but a dark blot on our national pride. The United States must provide the leadership which will deal effectively with the problems of Cuba and which will stop the spread of Communism through the Western Hemisphere from this dangerous base of subversion just 90 miles off our coast."

45-13 homecoming win

Tigers chew up Hornets

Bay High broke a two-game losing streak to romp all over the Poplarville Hornets in a razzle-dazzle style to celebrate homecoming Friday night with a 45-13 success.

After taking the initial kickoff, Poplarville managed to run the ball down to the Bay High 18-yard line before the Tigers line tightened up and forced the Hornets back to punting position on the midline. Taking the punt on their own 20, the Tigers tore loose on their first play from scrimmage when Mike Strong took a pass from Johnny Penton and went all the way.

Gary Fricke capped the first period scoring with a 2-yard plunge. Neither of the first two attempts at conversion succeeded.

Mike Strong opened second quarter scoring by intercepting a Hornet pass on his own 25-yard line and going the limit. Fullback Stanley Burch scored the extra point on a handoff from Penton. Poplarville managed a 57-yard sustained drive after receiving the following kickoff to score Beach on a 1-yard plunge. Beach managed his own conversion on a quarterback sneak for a 19-7 halftime with four minutes left in the first half.

Strong took a pitchout from Penton and ran 22 yards for his third TD before the halftime ceremonies but Penton's pass for the conversion was incomplete.

Late in the third period Tiger halfback Mike Smith scored on a 50-yard punt return, and Penton ran the conversion on the option play. Mid-

Bay High's homecoming was THE event of the weekend for most teenagers. As St. Stanislaus had a Saturday night bout, just about everyone in town took in the festivities. Queen Judy Compton was lovely in a winter white wool suit accented with crimson accessories. Melva Luke, senior maid, chose

Hawks frolic 51-0 in homecoming win

Hancock North Central exploded for homecoming Friday night by rolling up a 51-0 triumph in their non-conference tilt against North Forrest from Baton Rouge. Hawk quarterback Eddie Peterson ran three touchdowns, passed for three more, and ran for one extra point.

HNC scored only twice in the first half, running into an unexpected North Forrest offense formation which gave the Hawks several bad moments but the visitors' defense couldn't hold against the heavier Hawk line. Peterson passed to Wendell Ladner for the first tally and ran the second over from the 2-yard mark for the 12-0 halftime lead.

But Coach Lee had obviously scouted the Blue Angels and changed his tactics when the two teams hit the gridiron after the break.

the rest period, Barly in the third quarter Peterson plunged over for a five-yard touchdown and ran a successful conversion. After that the Hawks couldn't quit.

The remainder of the second half saw Peterson and Wendell Ladner, Jr., each score on five-yard jaunts. Passes from Peterson to Wendell Ladner and Jerry Ladner accounted for 12 more points while Larry Smith recovered a fumble in the end zone. Paul Cuevas made two extra points, one on a pass from Glen Davis and the other on a running play.

The Hawks have an open date this weekend but will be working out hard in preparation for their next outing. On Nov. 14, they'll be the guests of a tough opponent, the Yellow Jackets of St. Martin who hold second slot in the Gulf Coast Conference. Coach Lee and several of the players will be in attendance.

TAXES

Barry Goldwater says: "Americans are already working ten months every year just to pay taxes. Reckless government spending continuing at the present rate with new give-away programs, can only result in still more taxes levied against our already overburdened citizens. I am in favor of tax cuts through prudent government budgeting. We must live within the means of the people who pay the government's bills, and restore fiscal responsibility at every level of government."

Miss Ash weds airman in Presbyterian rites

Miss Mary Ann Ash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ash, became the bride of Airman Second Class Donald Craig Lagerstrom of Keesler Air Force Base in a double ring ceremony at 1 p.m. Sunday at First Presbyterian Church.

Rev. E. A. Lindsey, pastor, officiated and a program of traditional spiritual music was provided by Mrs. Robert Tamm, organist. Two large bouquets of white mums and daisies adorned the altar.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride had as her maid of honor and only attendant her sister, Miss Cynthia Ash.

The groom, son of Mrs. Rosalyn Davis Lagerstrom and Helmer R. Lagerstrom of Pasadena, Calif., had as best man Irving Hansen of Seattle, Wash., and Keesler AFB, Mr. and Mrs. Ash entertained with a reception afterwards at their home on Commagere Boulevard. Mrs. Roland Broussard of Lafayette, La., cousin of the bride, kept the guest register while two aunts, Mrs. Presley Clark of Lafayette and Mrs. W.H. Bueker of Crowley, La., presided at the punch bowl.

After a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination the groom will depart for his next assignment in Newfoundland and Mrs. Lagerstrom will join him there as soon as quarters are available.

The bride is a graduate of Bay High School and has been

And for adults there'll be the Come as You Wish Halloween dance at St. Clare's Parish Hall in Waveland Saturday night. The band has promised to play just good dance music and proceeds will go to the St. Clare's Church and school fund. Admission is $3 a couple and we're hoping for a nice big crowd. There have been a number of St. Clare's dances in the past and we can assure you from personal experience that you'll have a ball. Costuming isn't compulsory, but we find those wearing the most outlandish garb always seem to be having the most fun!

In politics
The political fray is being waged hot and heavy as election day approaches. Goldwater supporters are keeping telephone wires pretty much occupied and there are a number of LBJ workers who still get a bit ill if anyone mentions stamps.

Some of those who gave above and beyond and still taste icky stamp glue are Phyllis Ferguson, Evelyn Swanson, Eleanor Whitson, Shannon Roseberry, Jane Williams and Pat Marshall. Others whose hands are yet feeling the effects of writer's cramps include stencil artist Jess White, Iva May McDonald, the Lee Choppins, Mary Debeport, Delores and Norton Haas, Jr. and friends, Earl Ramond and youthful aides Jeanne Rutherford and Nancy and Ellen McDonald. Also on hand was our Democratic Elector, Dan Russell, who pitched in and aided in the clean-up campaign.

Good news for lovers of wonderful food, fellowship and good entertainment. Our Lady of the Gulf is giving its second bring-your-favorite-dish dinner at 7:30 p.m. Sunday in the school cafeteria. The event is non-denominational and recalls—

PEACE

Barry Goldwater says: "I stand for the proven policy of peace through strength that was the hallmark of the Eisenhower years. It served the cause of freedom and avoided war during the last Republican administration. It will do so again. The Republican party is the party of peace through preparedness. This administration is letting the peace slip away as it has three times since 1914."

One of our very good telephone friends, Col. Alfred McCaleb, needs some assistance. Someone must think his Beach Blvd. home is the still "just proposed" animal shelter and at present he and Mrs. McCaleb are foster parenting nine cats, which are a few too many. He has some cute kittens, fluffy, healthy and looking for someone to give them a good home. Cats pretty much take care of themselves and aren't too hard to please food wise, so if your child has been begging for a kitty, why not give the colonel a ring at 467-4664?

Good bites

The big specs are biting all over the place and four eager anglers, George Gorgi, Sam Scott, Bill Lizza and Jesse Breland really slayed them on a three day fishing trip last week. Shirley and Ed Hawkins and Capt. Herb Peterson also sailed into Bayou Caddy with a boat load last Sunday.

Perhaps our somewhat odd way of wording sentences is confusing to some, so we'll clarify our statements regarding what the well dressed Hancock Councilman is wearing to the New Orleans Philharmonic concert at Bay High gym Monday night. We thought we quite clearly said "full length formal and white tie and tail are NOT what one would choose for such an occasion locally, adding that some who are planning to attend parties either before or after the program will get a bit gussied up just for the fun of it, but we hasten to say that there will be many, in fact perhaps the majority, in just "Sunday-go-to-meetin'" garb and probably others will appear even less formally attired. Mostly we're just urging everyone to attend the symphony, for as we stressed last week, such opportunities in these parts are few and far between, and if enough give their support, this could possibly become an annual affair.

Gripe corner

We've been over this bit several times, but not recently, and apparently, it's the department practice of allowing youngsters to walk on top of the seawall. Chaperoning runs of groups from St. Margaret's Daughters and Camp Overland, for instance, either aren't aware that their charges are jumping on and jumping across hopscotch in the concrete, and frequently falling in the path of traffic, or don't realize just how dangerous this form of amusement is. There's plenty of room on the walkway and the same amount of exercise and fresh air can be obtained walking properly in the safe area—the seawall is partially there to protect strollers from automobiles, not to offer an easy means to shorten one's expected life span. Teen-age girls are the worst offenders, and as they obviously should know better, let's hope we're pleading with them in charge to end this game of seawall roulette once and for all.

1st American in New Guinea visits here

The first American man ever to set foot in New Guinea, Rev. William A. Ross, of the Society of the Divine Word, related his 38 years in that nation on a visit to St. Augustine Seminary here last week.

The veteran missionary in the mountain area of Mt. Hagen, Father Ross is as active today at 68 as he was when he first went to New Guinea in 1926. He has both seen and helped in the growth of New Guinea from the Stone Age to a rapidly developing country.

He described how he had to go about learning the language from the natives when there was no recorded language or grammar at his disposal. Picture slides on his territory accompanied his inspiring talk. The Divine Word Missionary, comparatively small in stature and wearing a flowing beard, is an authority in the ethnic and cultural customs of the people.

Father Ross was cited in Lowell Thomas' New Guinea, The Land That Time Forgot, in the January, 1964, issue of Reader's Digest. He will return to New Guinea after a furlough at home with his relatives and friends.

State Legion chief pushes member drive

Commander H.B. Moore of the Mississippi Department of the American Legion, guest of Clement R. Bonamps Post 139 at its meeting last Thursday night, called for support of the local Legion's membership drive which concludes Nov. 11, Veteran's Day.

Collection of dues is lagging for 1965 memberships, according to Gilbert Gayant, Jr., first vice commander of Post 139 who is in charge of its membership campaign. Quota for the post is 500 members. He urged Legionnaires to phone him at HO-5761, Harold Sancier at HO-6353, Warren Buehler at HO-4369 or mail them to the adjutant, Edward Murrigh. A Legionnaire will be dispatched to collect upon notice.

The state commander praised the accomplishments of the local post and announced the appointment of Post Commander Joseph Bertram as state advocate of the state department. Moore also urged local Legionnaires to continue with the membership drive.

Post 139's secretary, Bob Carleton, also represented the state representative to the Legion's Veterans Hospital entertainment committee.

TALENT WINNERS

Airman Thomas Edwards of Kessler Air Force Base, a top dancer, won the weekly talent show last Wednesday at AIG Theater. Second were Carl Woods and Wendell Lachner, Hancock North Central students who performed a saxophone duet. Patricia Patten of the HNC faculty sang folk numbers and played the accordion.

COURSE AT OLC

Approximately 25 men of Our Lady of the Gulf Parish will start training to participate in the new liturgy of the Catholic Church 3 p.m. Sunday at the parish hall. Full post course on serving as lectors and commentators will be conducted by Rev. William Thompson of OLC Seminary and Dr. Mark Horne of Bay St. Louis.

4-H clubs elect

Six more 4-H clubs have elected officers at meetings during the month when demonstrations were given on setting the breakfast and dinner tables.

Tish Wyatt was chosen president of the seventh grade club at North Bay Elementary School with Deonise Carlson as vice president; Kathy Blaise, secretary; Maureen Stamm, reporter; Phyllis Atcheson and F. Farnham, recreation leaders.

The ninth and 10th grade club at Bay High School chose Frances Cochran as president with Annette Vaughan, vice president; Elaine Bourgeois, secretary, and Lucy Carver, treasurer.

The 11th and 12th grade club elected Geraldine Kidd as president with Kathleen Maloney as vice president; Linda Dunham as secretary; Pat Perniciaro, reporter, and Janell Kingston and Ellen McDonald, songleaders.

At Hancock North Central the seventh grade club chose Madeline Cuevas as president with June Garcia, vice president; Carol Wickham, secretary; Candy Smith and Dot Shaw, recreation leaders, and Judy Lachner, reporter.

Given Shaw was elected president by the fifth grade club at HNC with Rita Moore, vice president; Donene Palmer, secretary-treasurer; Marie Lachner, reporter, and Veronica Lachner and Linda Dedeaux, recreation leaders.

The HNC high school club voted Onica Lachner as president with Lena Garriga, vice president; Claudette Lee, secretary; Cheryl Moran, treasurer.

Barry Goldwater says: "If the cost of living continues to rise as the dollar continues to shrink, the savings of our citizens will be less. I'd cut down government spending. And I'd move to keep down the size of government. No further. I'd see to it that we had a climate again in America where this free competitive enterprise system of ours would flourish, so that real jobs with real wages would be the answer not only to poverty but to the problems of inflation and higher living costs."

taqua, junior, Nancy Swords, gold; Susan Clark, sophomore maid, wore a rich shade of coral and freshman, Nancy McDonald's green and white wool suit was most effective, with her shining blonde hair. As usual, the girls were driven on the field waving from convertibles and each was escorted to her position of honor by a beaming father. They were entertained at halftime with precision marching by both Poplarville and Tiger bands climaxed with head majorettes Janet Crowe's spectacular fire-baton twirling. Incidentally the Tigers also won the game 45-13—an exciting pass interception and 80 yard dash to pay dirt by Mike Strong was one of the high spots of the contest. Immediately after the game students and alumni went to the Youth Center and had a ball at the annual homecoming dance.

North Central also ran up an impressive victory over North Forrest, they won 51-0.

Some one wants to know who has seen Reject Junior No. Two's new G-bird?

Hancock North Central seniors received their rings at a formal ceremony in the school auditorium last week.

How do you like sitting at home, N.D., while A.M. is sweating out a period of punishment?

Latest to earn driver's licenses are Gillan Puchet, Charles Necaise and Ross Maurigi. All passed their tests last Thursday.

Margie Lenfant and Gary Fricke celebrated their 'first anniversary' on Oct. 25. They have been going steady for a whole year!

Now time to catch up on some news turned in by Teen Times reporters Jeannie Rutherford and Lucille Giametta which came in too late for last week's column.

Linda Dunnham vocalized and Skelley Corban was a featured entertainer when Henry Jay and his Starfires furnished music for a dance at S.J.A. on Oct. 10.

Some one wants to know how Leo and the blonde are getting along???

Alice Lackey and David La France celebrate their 10th anniversary today. Tenth month, this is, for that's how long they have been going steady.

We hear that Mike Necaise has a new flame, but can't find out any details other than she hails from Gulfport.

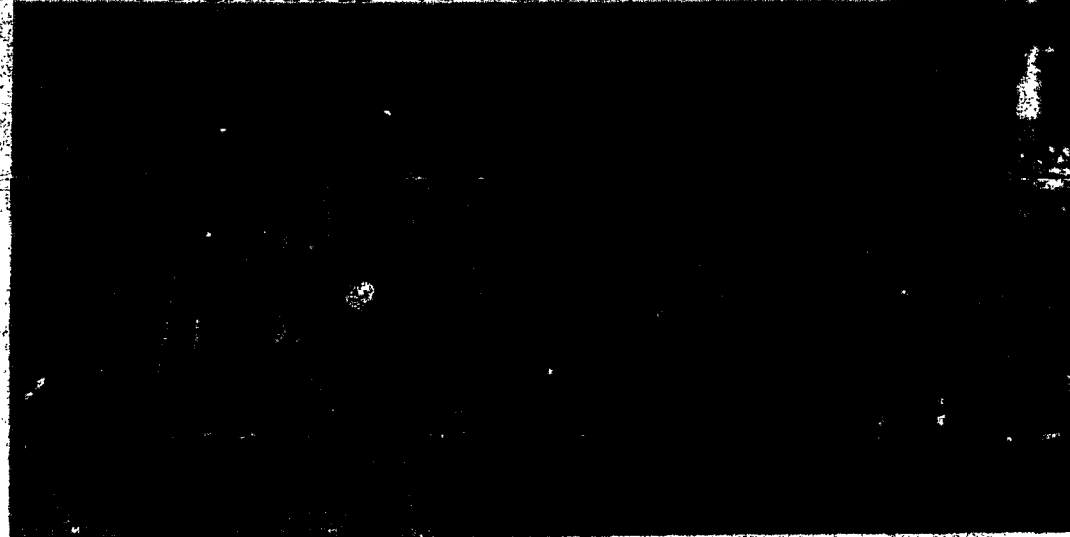

We've had our Bay High mystery, now here's one from St. Joseph's. Why is a certain St. Stanislaus student so popular in pretty blonde Bev Stechmann's eyes?

And then there's the story about two Johnson girls who wandered into local Goldwater headquarters!

Jimmy Giametta must be doing a good job on the Student Printz at the University of Southern Mississippi. In addition to sports writing chores, he now also has a whole page of his own to fill. Busy as he must be, he still managed to find time to pick up his best girl, Florence Beasley and bring her home for a weekend visit with his family.

And now for Lucille's verbatim report on the latest doings of the local Beasley club.

If you were one of the unfortunate who missed the celebration of Beasley John Lennor's birthday, here's what happened: the party was held Friday, Oct. 9, and Lisa Monti (our town's symbol of John worshippers) was guest of honor. Other VIPs in attendance were Kathy Dahl (George), Hilda Marquez (Paul) and Lucille Giametta (Ringo). A few commenters and spectators spotted in attendance were Mary Gottschalk, Susie and D's b's's Rodriguez, Elaine Blaine, Judy Carver, Judy Samski, Martha Compagna, Sharon Monti and Bev Stechmann. The list is entirely too long to include everyone, but you can be sure it was thoroughly enjoyed by all. No boys were allowed as it was given by a private club, to the great dismay of many present. As the festivity came to a close, the service and hospitality shown by the guests of honor, while Lennor, last survived long after midnight 24 hours and generally shouted and laughed riotously. One witness was quoted to have said: "What's wrong with those nuts anyway? and at last report, she hasn't been heard of since!"

The treasury department seems to have some posts down here, 'cause everyone's heard of the three famed ones from SJA. They are Susie Nickel, Doris Dimes and Queenie Quarters.

Who were those girls cheering for Long Beach last week? Just how unpatriotic can you get?

The Student Council at SJA gave a fund raising dance last Saturday night.

Get well wishes go to Doc Rhodes who has returned home after having surgery in a Thibodaux, La., hospital for severe facial injuries sustained in the St. Stanislaus-Thibodaux football game. Doc is still uncomfortable, but is fortunate as his doctor has promised no permanent after effects. All surgery was performed from within his mouth and nose, so he'll have no disfiguring stitches.

Andrew Ramage heads the student activity committee at Bay High with Linda Hamilton as vice president and Sandra Pillingame, secretary. Other council members are Kappy Clark, Dick Mastayer, Lydia Dillmann, Lucien Lader, Pat Pernicaro and Dale Russell.

Claude Yarborough, Jr. escorted Dianne Kingston to the Bay High-St. Martin's football game in Biloxi last Friday night.

Bay High seniors have ordered rings in a new design this year and anticipated delivery date is Dec. 4.

Several new seniors have enrolled at Bay High. Two from Pass Christian are Karen Crawford and Daniel Sones; Gary Evans moved here from Pittsburg; Donald Kelly hails from Tucson, Ariz.; Richard Marshall, Les Cruces, New Mex.; Jeff Pippy, Cocoa Beach, Fla.; Cheryl Roofner, Westlake, La.; and Bill Shepard, New York, N.Y.

The afternoon concert will begin at 1:30 p.m. and will offer music that will appeal even to heads of state, although of a very different nature. There will also be a commentary on each selection and an explanation of the various instruments, and selections will be brief at the museum. As all schools will be allowed to attend, and you'll be admitted at an admission of low price of only 20 cents.

Waveland Boy Scouts camp at Jackson Ridge

Boy Scout Troop 210, Waveland, camped out last weekend, pitching their tents on the beachfront at Jackson Ridge. A chilly night brought out the blankets, but the boys' activities, which included fishing off the pier as well as scout games and inter-parcel competitions, kept the heat up during the daylight hours.

Scoutmaster Wesley Dorn was assisted by Mrs. Dorn and Joe Dornaway during the two-day outing.

Boys participating included Johnny Donnaway, Pat Toomey, Joe Van Aarts, Tom Numan, Pete Numan, Joe Numan, Emmitt White, C.B. We're hoping everyone will take advantage of the chance to hear some really good music, and we'll bet many of you will be more than a little surprised at how much you enjoy it.

Valda Pittman's TIGER TALK brings us up to date on the halftime show presented at St. Martin's last Friday night when they did a re-run of Frankie and Johnny with Janet Crowe, Nancy Swords and Lucien Lader in starring roles. The second show was even funnier than the first as doctors Andre McDonald, Mike Poldander and Norman Lamb tripped and dangled 'dying' Lucien on the ground and the stretchers landed on the 'corpse'! On the return trip the band and pep squad stopped at a restaurant for refreshments.

Welcome back Helen Pittman and Prima Thomas—both girls missed the St. Martin's game due to colds.

Students are in for a treat which they ordinarily aren't offered hereabouts. The New Orleans Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra will present two concerts in Bay High gymnasium on Nov. 2. The afternoon concert will begin at 1:30 p.m. and will offer music that will appeal even to heads of state, although of a very different nature. There will also be a commentary on each selection and an explanation of the various instruments, and selections will be brief at the museum. As all schools will be allowed to attend, and you'll be admitted at an admission of low price of only 20 cents.

In your heart you know he's about MORAL CRISIS

Barry Goldwater says: "Americans everywhere are looking for a moral crisis in Washington and nobody should accept the notion in positions of public trust as a way of life. All it takes to clean up an administration that really wants it cleaned up—an administration with the moral courage to fire the influence peddlers and graft artists no matter whose friends they may be."

5th straight win Rocks sink Vikings 33-7

St. Stanislaus gridders made it five straight wins for the 1964 football season when they entertained Immaculate High School from New Orleans Saturday night. Coach Billy Murphy's Rockchaws got plenty of exercise in their brand new jerseys as they romped to a 33-7 rout against the visiting Vikings.

Halfback Rusty Judlin scored twice in the first quarter, first on a 26-yard run and later on a 43-yard pass play with quarterback Curtis Matheine making the toss. Paul Weaver booted successfully on the second extra point attempt.

In the second stanza Matheine and Judlin teamed up again for a TD pass, this time from 35 yards out, and Weaver added the point for a 20-0 lead over the Vikings at the half.

In the third quarter the Rocks kept moving with TD's

STILL UNDECIDED ??? TAKE A FEW MORE MOMENTS TO DIGEST THESE PERTINENT FACTS:

As local Democrats steeped in the traditions of the South, not as apologists for Lyndon Johnson's support of the Civil Rights bill, but as true Mississippians and Mississippi Democrats, interested in the welfare of Mississippi, we cannot conceive of Mississippi Democrats voting for Senator Goldwater for President, and give you the following reasons for our opinion:

1. Many Mississippians have mistakenly been led to believe that they should vote for Barry Goldwater because he voted against the civil rights bill. Senator Goldwater, a long-time supporter of the civil rights movement, on election year voted against the bill on two grounds, neither of which was the integration of our schools, the most vital matter.

2. Who nominated Senator Goldwater in San Francisco? Not a democrat of any stripe but the leader of all republicans, Senator Everett Dirksen of Illinois, the one man who takes absolute credit for organizing the cloture vote that silenced the voices of our own Mississippi Senators and that of other Southern Senators, thereby bringing to passage this bill Republicans have supported since reconstruction days.

3. Do you believe Dirksen, Rockefeller, et al (yes, Rockefeller now supports Goldwater) would vote for a man who is against their pet measure? The true sentiments of Goldwater are expressed in pamphlets and literature now being distributed by Republicans to Negroes in the District of Columbia (Washington), New York, and other eastern cities which reveals Goldwater in a different color than shown in the South. President Johnson, in his speech in New Orleans, in the heart of the South, was truthful and courageous. He said three-fourths of the Republicans and two-thirds of the Democrats voted for the bill, he signed it, and he would enforce it, the same as any other President would have to do. This was not double-talk.

4. Yes, Goldwater by his own campaign literature is a dyed-in-the-wool integrationist. President Johnson gave all-out support to the civil rights bill which he inherited. To cast an intelligent ballot, we must look then to issues other than civil rights. What are they?

5. Goldwater in his book "The Conscience of a Conservative" makes many startling pronouncements, (he is now crawling on some of them) the general tenor of which is to abolish all government aid programs. These include aid to public road, rural electrification, crop supports, etc.

price of cotton today without government support is 21c) social security, federal aid to old age assistance, public works projects, such as rivers and harbors development, soil conservation, control. Farmers Home Administration, and its aid in providing adequate housing for farm families as well as its present projects in this State of financing water systems for homes in rural areas and then, of course, there is such agencies as the Federal Housing Administration that has been financing of good homes for urban dwellers in Mississippi (and mostly white) and surely which directly benefit you or a neighbor. Abolish these programs for what ???

6. Give aid to Goldwater. Why? According to Governor Paul B. Johnson you will never meet this aid, not face to face, but in your back. An associated press article from San Antonio appearing in the Jackson Clarion-Ledger on October 13, 1964 quotes Governor Paul B. Johnson as saying the Republicans "are making a serious mistake in the South." The mistake, he said, has been the GOP refusal to allow citizens for Goldwater groups to function without Republican leaders on fund raising and other activities going through the party.

7. Wirt Yerger, Republican leader in Mississippi, and his crew do not want Mississippi Democrats to have knowledge of their inside maneuvering, much less where the Goldwater campaign goes. With this money and our congressional delegation displaced as Federal patronage, watch out Mississippi Democratic office holders. A two-party system is yours with the opposition party in the hands of Yerger who was President Eisenhower when he sent troops into Little Rock and when he appointed Warren, a Republican, as Chief Justice of the U. S. Supreme Court to write the school desegregation decision.

8. It is the Democrats who have brought large pay-rolls into Hancock County at the Test Facility, into Harrison County and Jackson County in many government projects, and this Mississippi Gulf Coast economy to be the greatest in its history. Should we turn it back to the Republicans who gave us three recessions in eight years of Republican administration?

Think on these issues, and "In Your Heart" you know the Democrats are right.
